Haute Couture School of Fashion,
Arts & Design owner, Joanne Dice

A year's worth of hard work and dedication by local art students was recently put on display in front of family, friends, and passionate art lovers. The Haute Couture School of Fashion, Arts & Design transformed Le Jardin Special Event Centre for Runway 2009... Passion is Contagious – an annual fashion and art show gala featuring an art gallery, fashion show and a gourmet dinner. The catwalk was lined with models wearing designs created by the students who attend the preparatory school for design. Those in attendance were treated to an awesome show featuring artists who are sure to make an impact in the industry.
